HINCHLEY MANOR PRESENTS
 LITTLE SHOP OF HORRORS

On the 21st Day of the Month of September in an early year of a decade not too long before our own, the human race suddenly encountered a deadly threat to its very existence, and this terrifying enemy surfaced, as such enemies often do, in the seemingly most innocent and unlikely of places...

In an attempt to halt the closure of Mushnik's Skid Row Florist shop, nerd Seymour Krelbourne introduces a 'strange and interesting plant'. Before he knows it the quick-talking Audrey II (named in honour of his secret love, fellow shop assistant Audrey) makes Seymour a botanical superstar; but his life is incomplete. Audrey, currently stepping out with a sadistic motorcycling dentist, remains out of Seymour's reach.

In this monstrous, murderous musical flavoured with stylised sixties 'doo wap' and fast-paced hit songs, our meek yet determined hero is seduced by his urge for fame, fortune and the chance of helping Audrey find a better life. Caught in a faustian fly-trap, Seymour sees too late that the secret hidden within the Little Shop may threaten the future of the entire human race...

...somewhere that's green
